

BUCKS TALE

February 23, 2007

FCCLA Regional Success

FCCLA competed in Amarillo at the regional contests on February 16-17. Senior Parliamentary Procedure placed second: Matt Cobb, Dwight Cowan, Trevor Ballard, Audie Gaines, Katelyn Freeman, Aaron Reyes, and Jake Diggs. Junior Parli Pro placed first: Whitney Roe, Sierra Grange, Abby Criswell, Dusty Michelle Armstrong, Kylie Goldston, Casey McAnally, Andrea Cook, and Britney Evenson. Applied Technology placed first: Thomas Rapstine, Philip Robinson and Cody Hastings. Entrepreneurship placed 1st: Heaven Swanson and Amber Roseth. Beckie Richerson placed fourth in Job Interview, and Sara Osbin placed fifth in Career Investigation. Holly Rose, Kim Stover and Andrea Bailey placed fourth in Senior Chapter Service. Kelsey Armstrong is the new Region I President for FCCLA, which covers the Texas Panhandle and El Paso. All teams who placed above will represent White Deer at state competition in April.

Does Season Wrap-Up

On Friday February 16, the WDHS Does played the Olton Fillies for the Area UIL championship game. Leading early and trailing by only five points at half time, Olton's physical play dominated the second half for a final score of Olton 46, White Deer 31. Becca Rapstine scored 8 points, Aubri Poor 7, and Whitney Evenson 5. Coach Petty stresses what an important building year this has been, a true history-making season. Becca says, "It was the first time we've won a play off game since the days of half court." Brittany Warminski says, "This was a good start for White Deer girl's basketball even though the loss was disappointing." This year's seniors are Kaycia, Sara, Becca, and Brittany. Thanks Does for a great season!

Buck Pride Conducts Annual Spirit Race

The clues have just begun for this year's spirit race, so Buck Pride members are urged to keep a sharp eye. The contest is shrouded in mystery. Good Luck!

Science Bowl Competes this Saturday, February 24. Team members are: Amber Roseth, Judson Mynear, and Drew Tyler.

Bucks Compete for Bi-District Championship

Bucks will play the winner of Gruver vs. Bovina in a TBA game slated for Saturday, Feb. 24. Check the WDISD homepage for developments on the scheduling of this game. Go Bucks! Show 'em who's boss!!